

Young Rifleman Wins Gold Rifle Shooting Honor

Ronald Hagenbaugh, 13, of 1011 Felbar Ave., won the standing handicap gold rifle trophy in the February shoot of the San Pedro Junior Rifle Club, Ann Frickman, NRA instructor, announced yesterday. The trophy is donated by the National Supply Rod and Gun Club.

Young Hagenbaugh has won several medals, certificates and emblems, including sharpshooter, and is a graduate of the NRA Registered Rifle School taught by Miss Frickman in San Pedro.

William McDade, 13, also of Torrance, won an expert trophy and has several medals to his credit. Other Torrance area winners were David Mosher, Tom Lane, Bobby Bloomer, Kenny Gable who placed second in marksman, Robert Johnson, Raymond Johnson, Charles Canniles, and Jimmy Jeffers.

These youngsters compete for the gold trophies every month during the year and then are awarded them on a permanent basis.

WOMEN WILL HEAR DiMICELI

Attorney Leonard DiMiceli, Republican congressional candidate from the 17th District, will be the speaker at the next meeting of the South Bay Club of Republic Women at the Fish Shanty.

DiMiceli will discuss the missile program and will present facts about the accusations against American policy.

Mrs. Edson Stratton, club president, will introduce the new officers, who include Mrs. William Deo Paul, vice president; Mrs. Alfred Miller, secretary; Miss Mary Breunig, corresponding secretary; Miss Maude Smith, treasurer; Mrs. Leslie Stier, assistant treasurer.

Directors include Mrs. John Baughman, Torrance; Mrs. Robert Thorburn, El Segundo; Mrs. Rachel Brown, Hermosa Beach; Mrs. Stella Dolynski, Manhattan Beach; Mrs. George Wills, Palos Verdes Estates, and Mrs. Agnes Wright, Redondo Beach.

Mrs. Bertha Walters is handling reservations.

Thrifty Drug Dollar Days

Thrifty Drug Stores' Dollar Days are here again and shoppers have a chance to save on the multitude of bargains, according to an announcement from Jack Mertz, manager of the local Thrifty Drug Store.

"Thrifty's Dollar Days will include special buys on selected merchandise from every one of Thrifty's huge departments," the manager stated. "Customers will recognize many of the nationally advertised items which will be offered during the February 13-16 sale."

Among the outstanding bargains during this semi-annual event are rubber gloves, three pair for $1; rubbing alcohol, regularly 49 cents, three for $1; 67 cent Bicycle playing cards, two decks for $1; and a vast array of electrically operated toys, values to $1.79, on sale at 79 cents.

Lion's Speech Contest Set

"Community Service — A Way of Life" will be the topic for three student finalists from North High School at the North Torrance Lions Club speech contest to be held Monday, Feb. 24, at the Western Club, Gardena.

Finalists will be picked next week by the school. The program is one of many youth activities sponsored by the North Torrance group, and the winner will compete with winners from other schools in this area, including Torrance and South High Schools. The district contest will be held in Santa Barbara.
